In your text, try not to use language from the task below.

A few days ago you had a problem at school. Your uncle in the USA is a teacher. So you write him a letter to tell him about the situation.

Tell him

- why you are writing the letter
- what the situation was
- how you felt in this situation
- what you did in this situation
- what you think about this problem now
- what you want to do now
